Quartermaster Creed:
I am Quartermaster
My story is enfolded in the history of this nation.
Sustainer of Armies...
My forebears sailed a little strange,
Down frozen, rutted roads my oxen hauled the meager foods a bankrupt Congress sent me...
Scant rations for the cold and starving troops,
Gunpowder, salt, and lead.

In 1492 we sailed to war in ships my boatwright built,
I fought my battles on the sea, I sailed the Southwest,
My rifle milled pointed sailing water holes,
And I went on with canyons,
I gave flags to seize.

The medals and crest you wear are my design,
Since 1862 I have sought out allies, brothers
who have shared my pain,
In war or peace, I'll bring them home,
And lay them gently down in fields of honor.

Provisioner, transporter,
In 1898 I took you to Panama Harbor and the Philippines,
I brought you onto your khaki cloth for uniforms,
When yellow fever struck, I brought them medicine you lay upon.

In 1918, soldier, like you,
Pearl Harbor, too, mine was the first blood spilled that day,
I jumped in day after day, in Normandy, D-Day, plus 1,
Bataan, North Africa, Sicily, I was there,
The chutes that filled the gray Korean skies were mine,
I shed the endless tears across the beaches in Vietnam.

By air and sea I supported the fight for Grenada,
Helicopters above the jungles of Panama carried my supplies,
In Desert Storm, I was there when we crossed the border into Iraq... sustaining combat and paying the ultimate sacrifice as we liberated Kuwait.

I am ship, the only emblem,
Change the outcome of battle,
Look to me, Sustainer of Armies...since 1775.

I AM QUARTERMASTER. I AM PROUD.

Creed of the Noncommissioned Officer

No one is more professional than I am. I am a Noncommissioned Officer. I realize that I am a member of a time honored corps, which is known as "The Backbone of the Army." I am proud of the Corps of Noncommissioned Officers and will at all times conduct myself so as to bring credit upon the Corps, the Military Service and my country regardless of the situation in which I find myself. I will not use my grade or position to attain personal, political, or personal safety.

Compliance is my watchword. My personal responsibilities will always be dependent on my mind – accomplishment of my mission and the welfare of my soldiers. I will strive to remain technically and tactically proficient. I am aware of my role as a Noncommissioned Officer in the Army and will perform my duties to the best of my ability. I will be a fair and impartial leader. All soldiers are entitled to consistent leadership. I will provide that leadership. I know my soldiers and I will always place their needs above my own. I will communicate consistently with my soldiers and never leave them underequipped. I will be fair and impartial when recommending both rewards and punishment.

Officers of my unit will have maximum time to accomplish their duties. They will not have to accomplish mine. I will earn their respect and confidence as well as that of my soldiers. I will be loyal to those with whom I serve, seniors, peers, and subordinates alike. I will exercise initiative by taking appropriate action in the absence of orders. I will not compromise my integrity, nor my moral courage. I will not forget, nor will I allow my soldiers to forget, that we are professionals.

Noncommissioned Officer, leader.
