Late submissions: The Gov't will not consider any quote that we receive after the deadline unless we receive it before we award a contract, considering it will not delay our purchase, or consideration of the quote is otherwise in the best interest of the Gov't.

Evaluation:

1. Gov't will record total evaluated prices.
2. If more than 3 quotes are received, the Gov't will identify a grouping of the most competitively priced quotes; remaining quotes will not be evaluated further unless later deemed necessary.
3. Supply technical proposals will be reviewed to ensure proposed supplies meet stated minimums, including warranty, delivery & installation terms if applicable.*
4. * Gov't may deem a quote to be technically acceptable or superior if their technical solution differs from the PWS or does not meet the technical minimums, but ultimately results in a solution that will meet or exceed the intent of the Government's needs and would involve an acceptable level of risk.
5. Gov't will then conduct a streamlined comparative evaluation for readily discernible value indicators ie. past performance, warranty conditions, maintenance considerations, quality assurance, proposed plans/methods/practices, quality, reliability, durability, life cycle maintenance costs, etc. IAW FAR 13.106-2(b)(3) evaluation of nonprice factors (technical/past performance) may be based on Contracting Officer's prior knowledge/experience; customer past performance inquiry replies; PPIRS/FAPIIS, or any other reasonable basis.
6. Technical and Past Performance Assessments will be recorded.

Basis of Award: The Gov't will award a firm-fixed priced contract to the responsible offeror representing the best value to the gov't, using a streamlined comparative trade-off evaluation IAW FAR 12.602 & 13.106-2 and the below, which may result in award to other than lowest priced quote.

Gov't may reject any quote not conforming to the solicitation.

Standing price quotations may be used if needed and deemed in the best interest of the Gov't.

Award may be made without any form of communications with offerors.

Gov't will make only one award unless circumstances deem multiple awards appropriate and in the best interest of the Gov't.

If after non-price evaluation it is deemed the apparent awardee has unrealistically low or unbalanced pricing, the Gov't will communicate with the vendor to ensure there was not a mistake in pricing prior to award. If a mistake is claimed, it will be handled IAW FAR 14.407.

If deemed necessary to stay within budget, the Gov't may reduce quantities and reach out to offerors with acceptable or better non-price proposals, requesting they revalidate or update their unit pricing. The Gov't may cancel the requirement if needed.
